

Scenarios

Situation #1: Parents and EAs are not comfortable using online platforms with heightened anxiety, due to changes surrounding continuity of learning.

Situation #2: What happens if students are noncompliant? What about students who are unprepared, unfocused (i.e. playing a video game at same time? physically walking in and out of screen during zoom lesson)

Situation #3: What are the confidentiality protocols for EAs regarding sharing adaptations, accommodations and progress with parents? EAs in a difficult situation as the new educational coach to parents.

Situation #4 If an EA or teacher is trying substitute activities for motor and speech without OT, SLP working with students (because of covid19) what are the legal concerns of providing these services and recommendations online?
