

GOVERNANCE

EDUCATION COMMITTEE – COMPOSITION 106

Rationale

The CISVA Board recognizes the need of the education committees to have a full complement of members in order to help carry out the committee's responsibilities.

Policy

Education committees will adhere to the following policy for their composition:

Parish Education Committee: The Parish Education Committee is composed of seven (7) members. Five (5) are elected and two (2) are appointed by the Pastor. The Pastor is ex-officio a member of the Committee and of all sub-committees.

Regional Education Committee: Each participating parish will send two (2) members to the Education Committee for a regional school. One (1) member shall be elected by the parish and one (1) member appointed by the Pastor. In the event that a parish has no Education Committee, both members shall be appointed by the Pastor.

Pastors of the participating parishes shall elect three (3) of their number to the Education Committee for a regional school, one of whom shall be named the Archbishop's representative by the Archbishop. The Archbishop's representative is ex-officio a member of the Committee and of all sub-committees.

Reference:	Approved: Board of Directors
	Date Approved: Pre - 1996
	Date(s) Revised:
Cross-reference: Policy 105 – Additional Voting Members Policy 111 – Term of Office	