Where Quebec law applies:

- If I designate my married or civil union spouse as my beneficiary, they will be irrevocable unless I check the box below. If not, restrictions will apply, unless I obtain the consent of my spouse. For example, I will be prevented from changing my beneficiary, making withdrawals (where permitted) or exercising certain other rights. I designate my married or civil union spouse as my revocable beneficiary.
- Where a minor beneficiary or a person who lacks legal capacity resides in Quebec - Benefits payable under this plan to a beneficiary who, at the time payment is to be made, is a minor or lacks legal capacity, will be paid to their tutor(s) or curator, unless a valid trust has been established for the benefit of the beneficiary, by will or by separate contract, to receive any such payment and the issuer has been provided notice of the trust. If a trust has already been established, designate the trust as the beneficiary in this section. Before designating a trust, legal advice should be sought.

I revoke any previous trustee appointment(s) and appoint:

Payment of benefits to the trustee discharges the issuer to the extent of the payment. I authorize the trustee in their sole discretion to use the benefits for the education or maintenance of the beneficiary and to exercise any right of the beneficiary under the plan(s). The trustee may, in addition to the investments authorized for trustees, invest in any product of, or offered by, the issuer or its affiliated financial institutions. The trust for any beneficiary will terminate once that beneficiary is both of age of majority and has legal capacity to give a valid discharge. I direct the trustee to deliver at that time to the beneficiary the assets held in trust for that beneficiary. I or my personal representative may by writing appoint a new trustee to replace the former trustee.
