

CISVA FORUM – ELECTION 2017

TEACHERS' REPRESENTATIVE

Call for Nominations

All actively employed teachers within CISVA are invited to submit a Nomination Form to stand for election to serve on the CISVA Forum. The Forum is a formal advisory body that is mandated by the Board of Directors to provide insight and analysis on issues of significance to CISVA for consideration by the Board. The current issue The Forum has been tasked with is the CISVA strategic priority of sustainability.

The Forum is composed of 12 members, 3 of which are drawn from each the following constituencies: Pastors, Administrators, Education Committees, and Teacher Representatives. Current teacher membership includes Rob Kirkham of Our Lady of Perpetual Help (term to 2018), and Kelly Kerrigan of St. Francis de Sales (who is the VCSTA Board rep). There is one Teacher Representative position that needs filling.

Deadline for Nominations: Friday 17 November 2017

Eligibility: open to all current CISVA teaching staff. Nomination Forms need to be completed by the prospective candidate and signed by one other current CISVA teacher. 'Current' is defined as actively employed at a CISVA school during the 2017-18 school year.

Nomination forms are available from your school's Election Committee.

Once all Nominations are received a ballot will be prepared and circulated to schools. Elections take place Friday 24 November 2017. Results will be announced by the Superintendent's Office Monday 27 November.

Interested in Serving?

Simply obtain a Nominations form from you School's Election Committee; complete it and submit to your Election Committee by Friday 17 November.

