Message from the Principal

Thank you for your interest in St. John Paul II Academy. We are excited that you would consider partnering with us on our journey of Catholic Education.

Becoming a member of the St. John Paul II Academy Community is a big decision, a decision that will forever have a tremendous impact on you and your family.

I urge you, particularly families with sons and daughters in Grade 7, to seriously consider applying for Grade 8 for September 2018.

God bless you,

Mr. Michel DesLauriers

New Temporary Location

We are very fortunate to announce that the temporary location for St. John Paul II Academy will be at the Star of the Sea Community Centre at 15262 Pacific Avenue. Fr. Dion has generously offered the facility for the first two years of operation while the high school is being built on its permanent site located at 182nd St. and 24th Ave.

The facility includes: classrooms; multi-purpose room; gym; full kitchen and office space. In addition, we are right next door to Star of the Sea church which offers liturgical and campus ministry opportunities for our students. This facility will allow us to establish our Catholic identity within our community and we are excited about this opportunity.
