CISVA is seeking applicants for the position of Principal at Archbishop Carney Regional Secondary School, located in Port Coquitlam, British Columbia. Archbishop Carney is a leading co-educational, Catholic Independent Secondary School in the province of B.C. committed to an integral formation of students within a Catholic worldview. The Principal serves as the educational leader and as spiritual exemplar to the school. He/She works collaboratively with the Archbishop's Representative, Regional Education Committee and CISVA Superintendent's Office toward the effective, mission-driven administration of the school.

The successful candidate will:

- Be an active, practicing Catholic
- Possess a valid BC Teaching Certificate
- Have a minimum of five years teaching experience, preferably in Catholic Secondary schools. This experience should be sufficiently broad so as to allow for effective leadership across a wide variety of domains
- Have a Master Degree (or working toward) in a field relevant to Catholic education
- Be committed to developing "an evangelizing school community which fosters a personal relationship with Jesus in the family of the Church"
- Guide students in the "pursuit of truth, beauty and goodness within the Catholic intellectual tradition"
- Have proven excellent interpersonal and communication skills and the ability to strategically engage all members of the school community
- Demonstrate a strong understanding and application of CISVA and BC Ministry of Education programs, policies, and procedures
- Effectively lead teachers in responding to the BC Ministry of Education redesigned curriculum within the CISVA unit planning framework
- Model best practice in instructional planning, assessment and evaluation
- Demonstrate a commitment to ongoing Professional Development
- Be committed to the leadership and growth of a vibrant International Student program
- Demonstrate commitment and competency in student recruitment and retention.

This position is effective September 1, 2018
